modern TRADITIONS

As we welcome the Spring & Summer seasons, we are proud to introduce a collection that feels both refreshed and deeply rooted in who we are. This launch celebrates the artful balance between classic design and modern perspective—where tailored silhouettes meet softer curves, and heritage details are reimagined with renewed clarity.

Throughout the collection, you'll see a thoughtful layering of texture and tone: vivid velvets, airy linens, rich leathers, fabulous wood finishes, and subtle metallic accents that bring warmth and light into every room. Highlights include: Matteo, a whole home casegoods collection that pairs neo-classical design elements with luxurious finishes (pages 4-7, 10-19, 52-55), Olivia, a custom upholstery collection that spans classic to transitional in design (pages 4-5, 8-9, 45), Bespoke Beds, select your style, size and tailoring options to design your own upholstered bed (pages 22-24, 34-37) and Benchmade II Ottomans, a custom program with various shapes, sizes and options to create the perfect ottoman for your space (pages 58-59).

Within these introductions, there is an intentional tension in these designs—a dialogue between tradition and innovation—that gives each piece a sense of history while keeping it undeniably current. We hope it inspires you to create rooms that feel personal, welcoming, and beautifully layered for the season ahead.

Warmly,

R. Dixon Mitchell
